Dear Mr. Malone,

I am inclosing a copy of the last letter my brother Sgt. Carlisle D. Jones wrote before he was listed as missing in action over Yugoslavia May 18, 1944. He was stationed at Tortorella Landing ground in Italy only four weeks before his last mission. We have had no news from or about him except that he is being continued on the status of missing in action.

Respectfully yours

Dearest Sis,

Just a note to keep you posted and prevent you from worrying. Don't have too much time to write now.

Am wandering if you get all of my letters, guess you do or you will eventually at least. I am getting yours, but some of the last you write reach me before some of the earlier ones -

I'm sending a few clipping about some of the fifteenth Air Force's raids; so keep them for me will you?

Have had only one letter from Marjorie and none from the others. Sometimes I swear I won't ever write Gilbert again, there's no excuse for them not writing unless they don't care that much. I don't think any one realizes how alone I have felt since Mama has gone. There
